

Gwangju 2019 : Preparations are in full swing

FINA Communications Department

With 150 days to go to the 18th FINA World Championships 2019 [1] in Gwangju, Korea, preparations are in full swing and on track.

The Organising Committee will soon begin on-site rehearsals after completing the final preparations including furnishing Athletes' Village and competition venues. The athletes, their entourage and the FINA Family will be offered the best conditions and service throughout the event.

The athletes' registration is soon to be opened – stay tuned!

The best media services will be provided

The IBC and MPC will be built inside the main competition venue to ensure maximum convenience for the press and will function as a media control tower where the press can monitor competitions in other venues far from the main venue.

Free Wi-Fi will be available in all corners of the venue, and a cutting-edge telecommunications service will be provided by KT, the official telecom partner of the PyeongChang Olympics.

Spectator tickets can be purchased online

Gwangju 2019 officially launched its online ticket sale platform on January 2, 2019. Make sure to join the fun and reserve your tickets to the FINA World Championships - you can purchase tickets here [2]!
