The Finance Committee shall be proposed by the President and approved by the Bureau. The Finance Committee shall be chaired by the Honorary Treasurer and may include such other members as the Bureau may deem particularly suited to contribute to oversight of the financial affairs of FINA by virtue of their relevant financial expertise and experience.

The Finance Committee shall:

- set a global compensation and benefits policy within FINA;
- review the total compensation of the functions of President, Honorary Treasurer, members of the Bureau and the Executive, Chair of the Committees (Technical Committees, Specialized Committees and Judicial Panels),
- evaluate the performance of the top management of FINA compared with agreed goals and objectives and review the total compensation of the top management of FINA.
