Education

The World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) provides for a range of information and interactive education possibilities.

FINA Doping Control Rules are compiled in accordance with the 2021 World Anti-Doping Code.

The 2021 World Anti-Doping Code [1] works in conjunction with 7 International Standards including:

* The Prohibited List [2]

* International Standard for Education (ISE) [3]
International Standard for Results Management (ISRM) [4]

International Standard for Code Compliance by Signatories (ISCCS) [5]

International Standard for Laboratories (ISL) [7]

International Standard for Therapeutic Use Exemptions (ISTUE) [8]

International Standard for the Protection of Privacy and Personal Information (ISPPPI) [9]

Athletes’ Anti-Doping Rights Act [10] is based on the 2021 Code and Standards and aims to ensure that athlete rights within anti-doping are clearly set out, accessible, and universally applicable.
Parents' Guide to Support Clean Sport

An anti-doping reference guide/booklet for parents seeking more information to ensure healthy athletic development and performance enhancing substances. This resource is relevant to parents of all levels of athletes from beginner to elite.

Parents play a key role in forming athletes' attitudes to doping and athletes often turn to them for advice. Topics such as doping risk factors are outlined, and links to websites where parents can find further useful information are suggested.

Anti-Doping Education and Learning (ADEL) for athletes, coaches, doctors, parents

FINA is pleased to present the World Anti-Doping Agency's (WADA) Anti-Doping Education and Learning platform (ADEL). ADEL provides educational resources and training to athletes, coaches, doctors, parents and anyone interested in learning more about anti-doping and protecting the values of clean sport.
