PR 62- Diving GP 2016: Seven nations clinch gold in Bolzano

FINA Communication Department

China, Colombia, Germany, Italy, Japan, Switzerland and the USA grabbed a gold medal this weekend in Bolzano, Italy, as FINA scholarship holder Guillaume Dutoit of Switzerland topped the men's 3m event with 452.62 points, edging Japanese Sho Sakai (445.80) and France's Matthieu Rosset (440.00).

In the women's field, Japan and Italy led the charge this weekend as 1m world champion Tania Cagnotto won the 3m springboard event on home-soil with 355.60. Xu Zhihuan (CHN, 332.05) and Anastasia Nedobiga (UKR, 317.30) respectively stepped on the second and third steps of the podium.

Italian pair Tania Cagnotto/Francesca Dallape were the best in the 3m synchro and Japan pocketed victories in the individual and synchro 10m.

Back to the men's, Yang Hao (CHN) was the best in the 10m event with 506.30 points, while the Chinese also triumphed with his partner Xu Zewei in the 10m synchro.

Germany's Patrick Hausding/Stephan Feck bagged the gold in the 3m synchro, while the pair took silver in the 10m synchro.
