PR 36- Mixed celebrations in San Juan as China, Colombia, Great Britain and Japan shine

FINA Communication Department

Divers from China, Colombia, Great Britain and Japan won at least one gold medal this weekend in San Juan, Puerto Rico, where the third meet of the FINA Diving Grand Prix 201 [1]7 was held.

Latin American Sebastian Morales of Colombia proved the strongest in the men's 3m with 469.70 points, while China's Liu Chengming (462.30) was second and Jordan Windle (USA, 424.00) third.

In the 10m, it was Great Britain's Matthew Lee grabbing the gold at stake with 492.95, while China pocketed silver and bronze with Xu Zewei (484.85) and Tai Xiaohu (408.95) respectively.

Great Britain was atop of the 3m synchro with Freddy Woodward / James Heatly (372.72), as 3m winner Morales placed second with partner Alejandro Arias Munoz in 361.17. New Zealand's duet Anton Down-Jenkins / Liam Stone completed the podium with 345.60.

Diving powerhouse China came back strong with a win in the men's 10m (Xu Zewei / Tai Xiaohu, 421.08), defeating USA's Jordan Windle / Ryan Hawkins (355.41) and the Colombians Juan Sebastian Reyes / Erick Caicedo Ruiz (353.58).

China's breakthrough continued in the women's competition with four victories, 3m, 10m and both synchronised events (detailed results below) as well as a silver medal in the 3m.

Japan's mixed pair Nishida Reo / Hazuki Miyamoto topped the 3m with 245.04 and Matthew Lee / Robyn Birch (GBR, 281.76) won the 10m version of the mixed event.

France, New Zealand, Puerto Rico, Singapore and the USA were the other nations on the podium in San Juan.

The 2017 Diving Grand Prix will resume at the end of the month in Madrid (ESP) from May 26-28.
