PR 26 – DGP: Canada and China, the best in Calgary

FINA Communications Department

Canada and China dominated operations in the second leg of the 2019 FINA Diving Grand Prix, held in Calgary (CAN), on April 4-7. The locals were slightly better than the Asian powerhouse, earning five gold medals against four for China. Mexico was the third nation with gold in the Canadian meet, after winning the men's 10m synchro event.

In individual action, China triumphed in three out of four finals. Among men, Huang Bowen (498.05) prevailed in the 3m, while he was silver medallist in the 10m platform, behind his compatriot Wang Zewei (485.80). Xu Yijin (345.45) was the strongest in the women's 10m platform, and paired with Zewei for the victory (321.54) in the mixed 10m synchro event.

Jennifer Abel (CAN) was the hero in the women's 3m springboard – only non-Chinese victory in individual events -, grabbing gold in 334.55. Pamela Ware, also from Canada, was third, ahead of the Chinese representative, Ma Tong, fourth.

The home divers also imposed their supremacy in the synchro events: men's 3m, women's 3m and 10m, and mixed 3m springboard. Randal Willars and Jose Diego Balleza (MEX) were the best in the men's 10m synchro.

The competition in Calgary was also successful for Great Britain (seven medals, including three silver and four bronze), for Australia (three podium presences), Cuba (two bronze), Ireland and Malaysia (with one medal each).

The nine-leg FINA Diving Grand Prix will now proceed to Mission Viejo (California, USA), where the third meet of the series will be held on April 11-14.
