PR 50 – USA take 13th Water Polo World League Super Final crown

FINA Communications Department

Team USA clinched its 13th FINA Water Polo World League [1] crown on Sunday June 9 in Budapest, Hungary, defeating strong contender Italy. It was the fourth time these two teams have met in the gold medal match of the Super Final (previously in 2006, 2011, 2014).

The American powerhouse, also current Olympic and World title holder, narrowly beat Italy 10-9 for the gold medal with a tie in the first and the last quarters (2-2, 1-2, 4-2, 3-3).

Russia claimed the silver medal against the strong Dutch team 7 – 10 (2-3, 2-1, 2-4, 1-2), while the host nation secured the sixth position, losing to Australia 7-12 (3-2, 2-3, 0-3, 2-4).

With this win, Team USA is qualified for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games.
