PR 77- Sloman (AUS) and Cunha (BRA) lead first Chinese Taipei Marathon Swim Series

FINA Communications Department

This morning, Saturday September 7, in Nantou (TPE), Australia's Nicholas Sloman and Brazil's Ana Marcela Cunha dominated the 10km men and women's races of the penultimate leg of the FINA/CNSG Marathon Swim World Series [1].

Veteran and current 5km and 25km World Champion Cunha won her fourth title this season, after triumphing in Doha (QAT), Setubal (POR) and Ohrid Lake (MKD). She touched home in 2h2m37s60, in front of the two strong rivals from Italy Arianna Bridi and Rachele Bruni who completed the podium in this order in 2h2m40s00 and 2h2m40s20 respectively.

Nicholas Sloman, 21, clinched his first gold medal of the 2019 circuit, after improving from a silver in the Seychelles. He was the fastest in 1h56m31s20 and was closely followed by teammate Hayden Cotter (1h56m36s80) and Italy's Matteo Furlan who clocked a time of 1h56m38s40.

You can read a detailed race report on FINA website [2] and results are available on FINA website [3] and FINA mobile app [4].

The Series will conclude on September 29 in Chun'An (CHN) after nine legs across the Middle-East, Asia, Europe and North America.
