C 8.3 Members shall have no liability in regard to debts and other liabilities of FINA.

C 9 APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

C 9.1 Application for membership shall be submitted to the Bureau with:

C 9.1.1 a statement of the name of the national body which must reflect the territorial extent, jurisdiction, and sport tradition of that country or Sport Country;

C 9.1.2 its official address and contact details;

C 9.1.3 a copy of its current constitution and rules and regulations;

C 9.1.4 a list of its main officers;

C 9.1.5 a list of its active membership (i.e. number of clubs, athletes, coaches, officials);

C 9.1.6 a formal undertaking to observe and abide by the FINA Rules, the World Anti-Doping Code as well as the jurisdiction and decisions of CAS;

C 9.1.7 the appropriate membership fee.

C 9.2 The Bureau shall have the power to approve the applicant for membership. If such membership is not accepted, the applicant is allowed to appeal this decision to the next General Congress. The decision of the General Congress shall be final.

C 10 SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

C 10.1 Membership in FINA ends:

C 10.1.1 if the Member no longer exists, or

C 10.1.2 if the Member withdraws its membership, or

C 10.1.3 if the Member is expelled.

C 10.2 Any Member who wants to withdraw its membership in FINA shall give written notice thereof to the Executive Director. The membership shall end immediately, but no refund of fees will be made.

C 10.3 The Bureau shall have the power to expel or suspend a Member for significant violation of the FINA Rules. The respective Member is allowed to appeal the Bureau's decision to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

C 10.4 The FINA Bureau shall also have the power to suspend a Member in case a Member is unable to preserve its independence in accordance with C 8.2.9 for reasons beyond its control (e.g. governmental interventions).

C 10.5 Suspension implies in any event the suspension of the right to participate to the Congress. In each case of suspension, the FINA Bureau determines the further effects of the suspension on the Member's rights and notably and without limitation, the effects on the possibility for the Members representatives or their members, officials, competitors, support personnel to take part to FINA or other Members activities or to exercise or be candidates to FINA functions, and/or to receive support granted to FINA Members.

C 11 FEES AND OTHER FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Each Member of FINA must pay an annual membership fee decided by the Bureau as part of the budget. FINA may set off fees with payments due to Members.

Default in payment of the membership fees or other amounts which may be due by Members to FINA in application of the FINA Rules may lead to sanctions, including suspension or, ultimately expulsion.

C 12 SANCTIONS

C 12.1 Any Member, member of a Member, or individual member of a Member, as well as Continental Organisation, may be sanctioned:

C 12.1.1 if duties and obligations to FINA are not fulfilled, or

C 12.1.2 in case of violation of the FINA Rules and/or decisions of the Congress and/or decisions of the Bureau and Executive, or

C 12.1.3 for bringing the Aquatics sport and/or FINA into disrepute.

C 12.2 Sanctions are:

- a) warning
- b) fine
- c) suspension
- d) expulsion, withdrawal of recognition
- e) cancellation of results
- f) return of awards, medals, prizes, etc.

C 12.3 Sanctions shall be imposed by the Executive unless otherwise provided by the FINA Rules (e.g. and without limitation, FINA Rule C 12.4, FINA Rule C 12.5, FINA Rule C 12.6 FINA Rule C 12.7).

C 12.4 Suspension or expulsion of a Member as well as suspension of a Continental Organisation may only be issued by the Bureau.

C 12.5 Any sanction imposed on a competitor or a person by FINA, a Member or by a FINA recognised body shall be recognised and enforced by all Members.

C 12.6 In cases involving violation of FINA DC Rules, sanctions shall be considered and applied by the Doping Panel (FINA Rule C 22).

C 12.7 In cases of a disciplinary nature referred by the Executive, sanctions shall be considered and applied by the Disciplinary Panel (FINA Rule C 23).

C 12.8 In cases involving violation of the FINA Code of Ethics, sanctions shall be considered and applied by the Ethics Panel (FINA Rule C 24).

C 12.9 Before any Member, Continental Organisation or individual is sanctioned, the individual or a representative of the Member must be given an opportunity to exercise a right to be heard, either in person or in writing.

C 12.10 Sanctions shall be in force immediately upon the decision being made unless the deciding body rules otherwise.

C 12.11 Subject to specific provisions of FINA Rules, FINA may no longer engaged proceedings in respect to violations of FINA Rules when such action is not initiated within ten (10) years of the event to which it relates. This statute of limitation does not apply to cases of sexual misconduct, bribery or corruption.

C 12.12 In addition to the measures and sanctions provided in the case of infringement of the FINA Rules, the FINA Executive may take any reasonable decisions for the protection of the Aquatics in the country of a Member, including suspension of or withdrawal of recognition from such Member if the constitution, law or other regulations in force in the country concerned, or any act by any governmental or other body, causes the activity of the Member or the making or expression of its will to be hampered. The FINA Executive shall offer such Member an opportunity to be heard before any such decision is taken.

C 12.13 Appeals

C 12.13.1 A Member, member of a Member or individual or Continental Organisation sanctioned by the Executive may file appeal to the Bureau. The appeal shall be addressed to the Executive Director within twenty-one (21) days from the date of communication of the decision.

C 12.13.2 A Member, member of a Member, or individual sanctioned by the Doping Panel, the Disciplinary Panel or the Ethics Panel may appeal the decision exclusively to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), Lausanne Switzerland. The CAS shall also have exclusive jurisdiction over interlocutory orders and no other court or tribunal shall have authority to issue interlocutory orders relating to matters before the CAS.

C 12.13.3 An appeal against a decision by the Bureau (including a decision on appeal pursuant to FINA Rule C 12.11.1), may only be filed to the CAS. The CAS shall also have exclusive jurisdiction over interlocutory orders and no other court or tribunal shall have authority to issue interlocutory orders.

C 13 THE ORGANISATION OF FINA

The following entities are established to govern and administer FINA:

- a) the General Congress,
- b) the Technical Congress,
- c) the Bureau,
- d) the Executive,
- e) the Judicial Panels,
- f) the Specialised Committees,
- g) the Technical Committees,
- h) the Commissions.

C 14 CONTINENTAL ORGANISATIONS

C 14.1 FINA Member Federations that belong to the same continent have formed the following Continental Organisations recognised by FINA:

- a) Confédération Africaine de Natation (CANAN)
- b) Union Americana de Natacion (UANA)
- c) Asia Swimming Federation (AASF)
- d) Ligue Européenne de Natation (LEN)
- e) Oceania Swimming Association (OSA)

provided their respective constitutions comply with the conditions in FINA Rule C 14.2.

C 14.2 The constitution of Continental Organisations must be approved by the Bureau. It must not be in conflict with the FINA Rules which must prevail in case of any inconsistency. A provision to this effect must be included in the constitution. Any change must be submitted to FINA for approval.

C 14.3 FINA may in exceptional circumstances authorise a Continental Organisation to grant membership to a federation that belongs geographically to another continent and is not affiliated to the Continental Organisation on that continent.

C 14.4 Each continental organisation shall hold a general assembly at least every two years and elections every four years. FINA shall be notified of the dates and the location of general assemblies at least sixty (60) days in advance, and be provided with the minutes within sixty (60) days.

C 14.5 Championships/Games FINA Sanction/Approval

C 14.5.1 Continental, Regional Organisations, Member Federations and/or members of Member Federations (clubs)/independent organizers must, before announcing dates and place for championships/games which they organize or sanction within their jurisdiction, seek approval by FINA. The FINA sanction shall include the following approvals:

- a) dates for the championships/games,
- b) competition programmes,
- c) doping control organization,
- d) any modifications of the FINA Rules and requirements.

C 14.5.2 The approval shall include the conditions and requirements in accordance with the FINA Rules, whilst the appointment of FINA delegate(s) shall be granted by the Executive. All Competitors must comply with FINA eligibility rules.

C 14.5.3 The championships/games shall be supervised by one or more FINA delegates. The Organising Committee of championships/games (except for continental competitions organized by the Continental Organisations) shall provide full board accommodation and travel expenses for the FINA delegate(s).

C 14.6 Continental Organisations shall:

C 14.6.1 promote the sport of Aquatics in their continents and regions in a permanent regular manner,

C 14.6.2 work closely with FINA in every domain so as to achieve the Objectives stated in the FINA Rule C 5,

C 14.6.3 organise continental, regional and international competitions in their area of jurisdiction,

C 14.6.4 where appropriate, form or encourage the formation of regional or sub-continental organizations to promote the sport of Aquatics in a manner appropriate to the conditions prevailing in their area of jurisdiction,

C 14.6.5 foster cooperation with FINA, and engage in consultative meetings to resolve matters relating to the interests of Continental Organizations and FINA,

C 14.6.6 coordinate with FINA for the promotion of Aquatics by arranging development programmes, courses, clinics and conferences,

C 14.6.7 elect their own President and Bureau members at least every four (4) years, with nominations for these positions emanating from the respective Member Federations.

C 15 GENERAL CONGRESS

C 15.1 The General Congress is the highest authority of FINA and shall have the power to decide upon any matters arising in FINA. Decisions by the Technical Congress may be overruled by the General Congress. The Bureau may decide to submit to the General Congress proposals relating to Technical Rules as well as other proposals.

C 15.2 The General Congress is held either as an Ordinary General Congress or as an Extraordinary General Congress.

C 15.2.1 The Ordinary General Congress shall be held every two (2) years at the site on the occasion of the FINA World Championships. FINA shall inform the Members not later than twelve (12) months ahead of the exact date of the Congress. FINA shall send an invitation to all Members, together with the agenda, reports (C 15.10.5 and C 15.10.6 below) and duly submitted motions and applications at least three (3) months prior to the date of the Congress.

C 15.2.2 An Extraordinary General Congress shall be convened either by a decision of the Bureau or if one-third (1/3) of the Members requests it in writing. The request shall specify the items for the agenda. The Congress shall be held within three (3) months of receipt of such request. The Bureau shall fix the date and place of the Extraordinary General Congress. The call including the agenda shall be made in writing at least one (1) month before the date of the Congress by the Executive Director. The agenda of an Extraordinary Congress may not be altered.

C 15.3 The General Congress of FINA shall consist of:

C 15.3.1 Members entitled to vote each, Member represented by two (2) duly appointed delegates. Each delegate shall have one (1) vote, provided, however, where a Member is represented by only one (1) delegate, such delegate shall be entitled to two (2) votes. Notice of the appointment of delegates, certified in writing by the Member they represent, must be lodged with the Executive Director at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the General Congress. A Member may have no more than two (2) delegates present at the General Congress,

C 15.3.2 the Athletes Committee represented by up to seven (7) members of the Athletes Committee with each member present having one (1) vote,

C 15.3.3 all members of the Bureau without vote,

C 15.3.4 the Honorary Life President and the Immediate Past President, each without vote,

C 15.4 A Member may appoint delegates in accordance with FINA Rule C 15.3.1 to participate and vote in a General Congress provided that:

C 15.4.1 it has paid all membership fees due to FINA; and

C 15.4.2 during the preceding twelve (12) months it has participated in at least one International Aquatics Competition (the FINA World Championships, other FINA Competitions, continental Competitions, regional Competitions or other international Competitions); and

C 15.4.3 it is not suspended.

C 15.5 Members shall only be represented by delegates. Delegates shall be representatives of the Member or otherwise have a function in the Member's organization or to be affiliated to the Member (i.e. be an officer of the Member, individual member of the Member etc.). A delegate may represent only one (1) Member.

C 15.6 Continental Organisations as listed in FINA Rule C 14 may appoint up to two (2) representatives who may attend the General Congress as observers.

C 15.7 The President of FINA, or in his or her absence the First Vice President, the second Vice-President, or a Vice-President or a Bureau Member designated by the Bureau or any other person appointed by the Congress shall preside over the General Congress. Upon proposal of the President of FINA the conduct of the Congress may be delegated to another person. Such delegation must take place when the President is a candidate during the election. On the occasion of elections of the FINA President, during the election, the chair of the meeting shall be handed to a person who is not a candidate.

C 15.8 The General Congress may, in order to reward exceptional merit in or service for the advancement of international Aquatics, elect an Honorary Life President, who shall be a member of the Bureau without vote. All existing Honorary Members will finish their term with the occasion of the General Congress 2021. The Honorary Members who serve their third term will be allowed to be elected for one (1) more four-year term with the occasion of the General Congress 2021.

C 15.9 The General Congress has a quorum if more than half of the Members are represented. If a quorum is not present at the previously announced opening time of the Congress, the meeting shall not open until one hour later, at which time the quorum shall not be fewer than fifty (50) Members. Decisions by the General Congress are made on vote of a majority of those Members present and voting.

C 15.10 At each Ordinary General Congress the following items shall be included on the agenda:

C 15.10.1 verification of quorum

C 15.10.2 address by the President

C 15.10.3 appointment of scrutineers amongst the attendants (outside active Bureau members),

C 15.10.4 approval of the agenda

C 15.10.5 report of the Bureau on its activities since the previous General Congress presented by the President,

C 15.10.6 financial report of the Treasurer and report of the Audit Committee,

C 15.10.7 approval of the budget (financial projection) for two (2) years,

C 15.10.8 proposals for changes and amendments of the FINA Constitution, Code of Ethics, General Rules, Facilities Rules, Medical Rules and Doping Control Rules,

C 15.10.9 release of responsibility and liability of the President and other Bureau Members,

C 15.10.10 election of Bureau members in accordance with C 17.5 and Officers in accordance with C 17.6 and Honorary positions in accordance with C 15.8 (if applicable),

C 15.10.11 election of Ethics Panel members in accordance with C 24 (if applicable),

C 15.10.12 election of Audit Committee members in accordance with C 21.13 (if applicable), and

C 15.10.13 other business for which notice has been given.

C 15.11 Motions, applications and proposals for amendments of or addition to the FINA Rules shall be considered only if submitted by a Member or by the Bureau. All motions, applications, and proposals to be considered by the Ordinary General Congress must reach the Executive Director at least eight (8) months prior to the Congress and must appear on the agenda given to the Members in accordance with C 15.2.1. On a motion of urgency approved by a three quarter (3/4) majority of Members present and voting, the Ordinary General Congress may deal with new proposals not appearing on the agenda.

C 15.12 Any amendment of or addition to the Constitution decided by the General Congress shall become effective immediately unless otherwise determined at the time of such decision. Any amendment of or addition to the other FINA Rules decided by the General Congress shall not become effective earlier than two (2) months after the decision has been made, unless otherwise decided by the General Congress.

C 16 TECHNICAL CONGRESS

C 16.1 The Technical Congress shall address and decide all technical matters concerning the competitive sport in swimming, open water swimming, diving, high diving, water polo, artistic swimming, and Masters and shall have the power to determine the Technical Rules of FINA.

C 16.2 The Technical Congress shall be convened every four (4) years, preferably on the occasion of the FINA World Championships. The Executive Director shall inform the Members not later than twelve (12) months ahead of the exact date of the Technical Congress. The Executive Director shall send an invitation to all Members, together with all duly submitted motions and applications at least three (3) months prior to the date of the meeting. The Bureau may convene an extraordinary Technical Congress. In this case, the twelve (12) months deadline does not apply.

C 16.3 The Technical Congress shall consist of:

C 16.3.1 two (2) duly appointed delegates of each Member, if the Technical Congress is divided into separate meetings for individual disciplines. If the Technical Congress is for two or more disciplines combined, each Member may however appoint one delegate for each discipline. Notice of the appointed delegates, certified in writing by the Member they represent, must be lodged with the Executive Director at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the Technical Congress. In each Technical Congress, each Member has two votes, regardless of the number of delegates.

C 16.3.2 all members of the Bureau without vote,

C 16.3.3 the Honorary Life President without vote,

C 16.3.4 all members of the respective Technical Committee without vote.

C 16.4 The President of FINA, or in his or her absence and in order of priority, the First Vice President, the second Vice-President, or a Vice-President or a Bureau Member designated by the Bureau or any other person appointed by the Congress shall preside the General Congress, shall preside the Technical Congress. Upon proposal of the President of FINA the conduct of the Congress may be delegated to another person.

C 16.5 The Technical Congress has a quorum if at least twenty (20) Members are represented.

C 16.6 At each Technical Congress the following items shall be included on the agenda:

C 16.6.1 verification of quorum,

C 16.6.2 address by the President,

C 16.6.3 appointment of scrutineers amongst the attendants (outside active Bureau members),

C 16.6.4 approval of the agenda

C 16.6.5 proposals of changes and amendments of the Technical Rules, and

C 16.6.6 other technical business for which notice has been given.

C 16.7 Motions, applications, and proposals for amendments of or addition to the Technical Rules shall be considered only if submitted by a Member or by the Bureau. All motions, applications and proposals to be considered by the Technical Congress must reach the Executive Director at least eight (8) months prior to the Congress and must appear on the agenda given to the Members in accordance with C 16.2. On a motion of urgency approved by a three quarter (3/4) majority of Members present and voting, the Congress may deal with new proposals not appearing on the agenda.

C 16.8 Any amendment of or addition to the Technical Rules agreed upon by the Technical Congress shall not become effective earlier than two (2) months after the decision has been made unless otherwise decided by the Technical Congress.

C 17 BUREAU

C 17.1 The Bureau shall consist of twenty-six (26) voting members and members without vote as follows:

C 17.1.1 the President,

C 17.1.2 five (5) Vice Presidents one from each of the five Continents including the First Vice President and the Second Vice President,

C 17.1.3 the Treasurer, and

C 17.1.4 eighteen (18) additional members elected by the Congress

C 17.1.5 The Chair of the Athletes Committee shall further be ex officio Bureau Member with vote.

C 17.1.6 The Honorary Life President, the Immediate Past President, the Immediate Past First Vice President, and the Immediate Past Treasurer are also members of the Bureau with voice, but without vote. The Immediate Past President, the Immediate Past First Vice President, and the Immediate Past Treasurer shall stay as such.

C 17.1.7 The Bureau shall have the right to co-opt a representative from the Member where the next Olympic Games and/or World Championships will be held. This representative shall be a member of the Bureau without vote until the closing ceremony of the Olympic Games and/or World Championships in his/her country. This rule shall not apply if such a Member has already a representative in the Bureau. The Bureau may remove such co-opted Bureau member if he/she cannot fulfil the role for which he/she was appointed to.

C 17.1.8 Bureau Members shall be ex-officio members with a voting right in the bureau and the general assembly of the respective Member to which they are affiliated, or by default the member of which is citizen.

C 17.2 Members of the Bureau are not personally liable for the debts and obligations of FINA.

C 17.3 The voting members of the Bureau including the President shall be elected or confirmed by the General Congress. All the Bureau members, except the Honorary Life President, the Immediate Past President, the Immediate Past First Vice President, the Immediate Past Honorary Treasurer and the Chair of the Athletes Committee, shall be of different countries or Sport Countries. Persons not actually in attendance may be elected if a written declaration of consent is presented.

C 17.4 The newly elected Bureau shall take office at the conclusion of the FINA World Championships (50m).

C 17.5 The election of Bureau Members for a term of four (4) years shall proceed as follows:

C 17.5.1 The election of the President is the first election.

C 17.5.1.1 Each candidate must be proposed to FINA by its own National Federation four (4) months before the FINA General Congress. The candidate shall have played an active role in aquatics (e.g. as athlete or official within FINA, a Continental Organisation or a Member, etc.) for at least ten (10) years before being proposed as candidate.

C 17.5.1.2 Candidates are subject to an eligibility check by FINA Ethics Panel. No candidate is allowed to carry out any type of campaign before such check has been performed.

C 17.5.1.3 The campaign of any candidate for the office of FINA President must be conducted in dignified manner and in accordance with FINA Rules. Violation of the above may lead to the removal of the candidate. A decision in this respect is made by the FINA Ethics Panel.

C 17.5.1.4 Candidates for the position of President cannot apply for any other position within the Bureau. The elected President is considered within the number of Bureau Members elected upon proposal of their respective Continental Organisations pursuant to FINA Rule C 17.5.2. Therefore, the Continental Organisation who has a candidate shall provide another candidate for the Bureau in case of the non-election of its candidate for the position of President. Accordingly, the number of Bureau Members who can be elected for the continent of the elected President is reduced by one.

C 17.5.2 Election of seventeen (17) members to be elected by the General Congress in accordance with the elections of their respective Continental Organisations. They shall be elected to provide the following geographical representations, taking into account that the President is counted in the below numbers:

- a) four (4) from Africa,
- b) four (4) from America,
- c) four (4) from Asia,
- d) four (4) from Europe,
- e) one (1) from Oceania.

The Continental Organisations shall inform the Executive Director in writing of the names of their potential respective candidates prior their nomination at least four (4) months before their respective General Congress of the Continental Organisation at which the candidates must be designated. As a condition the candidates must be supported by their own National Federation. The candidates shall be subject to eligibility checks by the FINA Ethics Panel prior to their appointment by the General Congress of their Continental Organisation. The designated candidates must then be nominated in writing to FINA through the Executive Director at least 4 (four) months before the FINA General Congress. Only candidates nominated by the respective Continental Organisations can be nominated for election by the FINA General Congress.

C 17.5.3 Another eight (8) members shall be elected from the world at large, not exceeding one (1) from Africa, two (2) from Asia, one (1) from Oceania, two (2) from the Americas and two (2) from Europe.

For this election, candidates must be nominated in writing to FINA through the Executive Director at least four (4) months before the Congress by the Member Federation to which they are affiliated. Candidates are subject to eligibility checks to be performed by the Ethics Panel.

C 17.6 The General Congress shall elect from among the seventeen (17) voting Bureau Members elected in accordance with C 17.5.2:

C 17.6.1 Five (5) Vice Presidents who shall be elected on the basis of continental representation, one (1) for each of the continents of Africa, America, Asia, Europe, and Oceania. At the election of the Vice Presidents, only the candidates for the position of the Vice President from their respective continents shall be presented to the Congress for ratification. The Continental Organisations shall inform the FINA Executive Director of the name of the elected Vice President by the Continental Congress in writing at least four (4) months in advance. Only candidates proposed by the respective Continental Organisations can be presented for election by the General Congress;

C 17.6.2 The First Vice President shall be designated from among the newly elected five Vice Presidents;

C 17.6.2.1 The five Vice Presidents shall propose to the Congress one (1) candidate for the position of the First Vice President. This candidate shall be approved by the Congress by a majority vote. In the event, the candidate does not obtain a majority of votes, the Vice Presidents shall present another candidate to the Congress.

C 17.6.2.2 The President, the First Vice President and the Second Vice-President must be from different Continents

C 17.6.3 the Second Vice President from among the remaining four (4) Vice Presidents;

C 17.6.3.1 The five (5) Vice Presidents shall propose to the Congress one candidate for the position of the Second Vice President. This candidate shall be approved by the Congress. In the event the candidate does not obtain a majority of votes, the Vice Presidents shall present another candidate to the Congress.

C 17.6.4 the Treasurer.

C 17.6.4.1 Candidates for the position of Treasurer shall be nominated by Members in writing to the Executive Director from amongst the eligible candidates (i.e. candidates for election in accordance with FINA Rule 17.5.2) at the latest three (3) months before the General Congress. The Executive Director shall notify to all FINA Members and Continental Organisations the candidates for the Treasurer at least two (2) months prior to the General Congress. Only Bureau Members elected in accordance with FINA Rule 17.5.2 and who are not elected Vice- President can be maintained for election as Treasurer by the Congress.

C 17.7 The Executive shall consist of up to nine (9) members: the President, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President, the Treasurer, the three (3) other Vice Presidents, the Immediate Past President and one (1) more Bureau member to ensure continental representation as per FINA Rule C 17.5.3.

The Executive is responsible for:

- a) monitoring establishment and implementation of the annual business plan and the long-term strategic plans defined and approved by the Bureau;
- b) being the interface between the Bureau and the management of FINA, in particular the Executive Director and the FINA Office and the management,
- c) dealing with critical issues which may impact on the outcomes of the strategy defined by the Bureau and matters requiring immediate attention between meetings of the Bureau;

- d) issuing decisions on the application of FINA Rules, in cases which are not delegated to a specific body (e.g. presently the Doping Panel, the Disciplinary Panel or the Ethics Panel).

C 17.8 The Bureau members can be elected for a maximum of three (3) full terms with any period of time served before 2015 to be disregarded in calculating the number of full terms that a person has served as a Bureau member. The President can be elected for a maximum of three (3) full terms as President irrespective of terms served before as Bureau member.

C 17.9 If the President, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President and/or the Treasurer are not elected for a second period in their previous post or not elected for other posts, they shall remain as members of the incoming Bureau, without vote, as Immediate Past President, Immediate Past First Vice President, Immediate Past Second Vice President and Immediate Past Treasurer.

C 17.10 Vacancies:

C 17.10.1 Any vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the First Vice President until election of a new President at the next Ordinary General Congress. If such Congress is not an Ordinary General Congress at which full Bureau elections are to take place, the President shall be elected for a reduced term expiring at the next Ordinary General Congress with full Bureau election. This reduced term does not count as part of “full term” as per FINA Rule C 17.8.

C 17.10.2 Any vacancy in the office of the First Vice President for any reason including substitution of the President pursuant to FINA Rule C 17.12 shall be filled by the Second Vice President until the next Ordinary General Congress at which either elections of a complete Bureau are to be held if such elections were to take place at the end of a 4 years term or, alternatively, complement elections are to be held to fill in only the missing positions until for the remainder of the term.

C 17.10.3 Subject to the previous paragraphs, the Bureau shall have the authority to fill any vacancy in the position of second Vice-President, Treasurer or any other vacancy in the Bureau occurring in respect of any Member of the Bureau elected in accordance with FINA Rule C 17, subject to observance and preservation of the balance in the geographical representation as set out in FINA Rule C 17.6 and in consultation with the respective Continental Organisation. The substitution shall be in effect until the next Ordinary General Congress at which either elections of a complete Bureau are to be held if such elections were to take place at the end of a four (4) years term or, alternatively, complement elections are to be held to fill in only the missing positions until for the remainder of the term.

C 17.11 If a Bureau member has been absent from two (2) meetings without reasons acceptable to the Bureau, the Bureau shall have the right to declare that such a Member has forfeited his or her membership. The Bureau may then fill the vacancy in accordance with FINA Rule C 17.12.

C 17.12 Members of the Bureau shall serve until their successors are elected and take office.

C 17.13 Rights and duties of the Bureau shall include the following:

C 17.13.1 to discuss and make decisions on all matters assigned to the Bureau by the Congresses,

C 17.13.2 to interpret and enforce the FINA Rules,

C 17.13.3 to issue by-laws,

C 17.13.4 to issue administrative directives, including notably but without limitation in regard to time and manner of payment of any financial obligations,

C 17.13.5 to issue and publish regulations for competitions organized or sanctioned by FINA,
